MFA

VIRGINIA CAVALCADE

VOLUME FOURTEEN
Summer 1964 - Spring 1965

Published Quarterly
by the
Virginia State Library
Richmond, Virginia

CONTENTS OF VOLUME FOURTEEN

Number One, Summer 1964

Church Hill Revives ..... Charles Houston 5

Richmond's first suburb has found new meaning as a living restoration.

Impressions of Cumberland Gap ..... Eugene Alvarez 11

Explorers, pioneers, soldiers, and authors have described the awesome beauty of this strategic pass to the West.

Courthouses of Virginia's Eastern Shore ..... William H. Gaines, Jr. 20

Since the first courts were established there early in the seventeenth century, many different buildings have served as centers of local government in Accomack and Northampton counties.

Henrietta Liston in America ..... Irene J. Murray 28

A diplomat's wife records her impressions of America during Washington's administrations.

Rebellion in the Meeting House ..... William R. Sengel 34

Alexandria's Presbyterians were called "Liberty Mad."

The Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad ..... Ames W. Williams 40

Nearly half its active life was spent serving the Union occupation forces.

Number Two, Autumn 1964

Francis Gilmer's Mission ..... Helen Stone Peterson 5

A young lawyer toured Britain in an attempt to recruit a faculty for the new University of Virginia.

Strange Encounters ..... John H. Moore 12

Duels in Virginia have not always been fought in the classic form.

Elder John Kline ..... Klaus G. Wust 25
A life of pacifism ended in martyrdom.

James Rumsey ..... T. Marshall Hunter 33
A talented Virginia inventor built workable steamboats many years before Fulton's.

Turkey Island Plantation ..... R. E. Stivers 41
Did Butler order the destruction of Pickett's old mansion house to satisfy a lust for vengeance?

Number Three, Winter 1964

The Wilderness ..... Harold F. Round 4
This famous wasteland was devastated to meet the needs of a pioneer industry, long before it became a battleground.

John Sevier and Isaac Shelby ..... Howard P. Hildreth 10
Two Virginians helped create states beyond the mountains.

Lynchburg's Tobacco Warehouses ..... Ruth H. Blunt 16
John Lynch's town on the upper James became an important center for the inspection and marketing of tobacco.

Judge Cyrus Griffin ..... Henry S. Rorer 22
He was president of Congress, judge of the first national court, first federal judge for Virginia, and one of the nation's ablest lawyers.

The Translation of Washington ..... Walter L. Jones 28
The Capitols at Richmond and Washington were both proposed as shrines to the Father of His Country.

APR 28 1965

MFA

Naval Honors at Mount Vernon ..... Edward F. Heite 40
Belligerents in two wars preserved a tradition of respect for Washington's tomb.

The Tunnels of Richmond ..... Edward F. Heite 42
Railroad builders met with unexpected hazards in Richmond's hills of clay.

Number Four, Spring 1965

John Yates Beall: "The Southern John Brown" ..... Lida Mayo 4
A daring young secret agent served the Southern cause from Cape Charles to Canada.

Judge Robert Ould ..... Edward F. Heite 10
His struggle for justice continued long after the war was over.

Soldier, Scholar, Gentleman ..... M. Clifford Harrison 20
A Virginian of many talents is best remembered as a successful teacher.

Agents of Peace and Progress ..... Lillian Craig 32
The Hotchkiss brothers used the arts of publicity to foster reconciliation and recovery.

Butler's Ditch 38
The canal at Dutch Gap was a grand effort, but it accomplished little.

A Virginia Family at Maximilian's Court ..... John H. Moore 42
The Archduke Maximilian's short-lived Empire of Mexico was a refuge for Virginia Confederates and others.